

Position: Spencer Lake Iceberg Kayaking Guide

Location: Girdwood

May 13 - September 16, 2019

Full- time positions

Ascending Path focuses on eco-tourism day tour adventures, outdoor education and custom-tailored adventures for families, high profile clients, individual travelers, groups, ADA, local Alaskans and experienced climbers, alike. The Spencer lake is iceberg filled and a very unique work environment. In 2019, we will continue using the 8am morning Coastal Classic train for pre-katabatic paddling! Kayak Guides are generally done working by 6pm.

Responsibilities: Appropriately prepare for, lead, manage and execute the Iceberg Kayaking tour as described on our website. Industry standard guiding techniques are expected.

Minimum Qualifications:	Preferred Qualifications:
Previous Sea Kayaking Guiding experience Current Wilderness First Responder Cert. Excellent wilderness knowledge Excellent interpretive communication skills Sincere enthusiasm to share Alaska’s wilderness Attitude of environmental stewardship No prior felonies Ability to lift 80 lbs regularly Immaculate punctuality Ability to be flexible with dynamic logistics Outstanding customer service skills A humble, happy, fun, helpful and friendly disposition. Availability to work additional hours during peak operating season Commitment from May 13th- Sept. 16th	3+ years Sea Kayak guiding experience 3+ years wilderness hiking guiding experience Rescue training, certs and experience Strong Glaciology knowledge Strong Metrology knowledge VHF/InReach and SAT phone coms Interest in office logistics Able to problem solve vehicle issues Clean driving record Leave No Trace and Bear Safety knowledge Interests in technology and smartphones Experience around helicopters International travel experience BA or advanced degree in relevant field Experience driving 15 passenger vans State of Alaska class "C" Commercial Driver License with a passenger endorsement (or equivalent). CDL

Compensation: Day rate of $140-175, salary or $15-$17/hr D.O.E.,. End of season performance based bonus, housing stipend, tips, flexible hours, and other perks related to the outdoor industry (prodeals, etc).

If you’d like to work with our amazing crew and help facilitate our guest's experience of the Alaskan wilderness, please email us your resume and cover letter: ops@ascendingpath.com